

PENNSYLVANIA
State Lunatic Hospital.

Harrisburg Dec 25, 1873

My dear Mrs. Child, I have often recalled with pleasure our inspiring meeting at the R. R. Station that afternoon. And sorry to have parted so abruptly. And by you have again clearly recalled to my recollection by reading on my Father, where I was looking for something to encourage a fifteen minutes before too long, your beautiful Book "Looking towards Sunset," and this very cheerful pleasant day I write to express the good wishes of the season for you self and Mrs. Child. May the sunshine linger on for evermore!

